EASLEY APPOINTS TUCKER TO STATE BOARD OF ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley appointed Jerry L. Tucker of Archdale to serve on the North Carolina State Board of Examiners of Electrical Contractors.

Tucker has been the vice president of estimating at Bryant Electric Company, Inc. since 1997. He is currently serving on the board of directors of the Carolinas Electrical Contractors Association. Tucker received his bachelor's degree from North Carolina State University in 1970.

The North Carolina State Board of Examiners of Electrical Contractors is responsible for the licensing of people engaging in electrical contracting in North Carolina. It gives the written examination of all applicants and investigates complaints against non-licensees. The board has seven members, and the Governor appoints five members. Each member serves a seven-year term.
